Not to be missed in Brussels...

We can put you in contact with professional agencies specialised in the organisation of different types of events.

Royal Palace: In the heart of Brussels' Royal district, the Royal Palace is surrounded by Brussels' Park, the Royal Fine Arts Museums, the Parliament, and by the Senate. Its architecture is a reminder of the impact of the Belgian monarchy on the history of Belgium.

European District: The European Parliament and the impressive modern buildings of the different E.U. Institutions symbolize the construction of a continent undergoing constant social, economic, cultural and political evolution. Surrounded by the "Léopold" and "Cinquantenaire" parks, these centres are at the heart of many important European decisions.

Grand'Place: Brussels Grand'Place is surrounded by a pleasant combination of public and private buildings, dating back mainly to the end of the 17th century. The architecture offers a vivid summary and illustrates the social and cultural importance of this economic and political centre.

"Palais de Justice" square: Situated within walking distance of the hotel, the square of the "Palais de Justice" offers a panoramic viewpoint over Brussels. The building of the Law Courts dominates the "Marolles" district with its picturesque lanes that are accessible via a recently installed elevator.

Entertainment

Forest National: Offering a capacity of over 7000 seats, Forrest is one of the largest events hall in Belgium, and hosts many events and concerts.

UGC Toison d'Or cinema: This cinema complex is located in the "Louise" shopping arcade, close to the hotel.

Theatre Royal de la Monnaie: This mythical Theatre Hall was built in 1700. It is host to many operas and ballets.

Sports and Leisure

Brussels Golf Club : 9-hole Golf course, right in the heart of Brussels.

Shopping on the Avenue Louise: Close to the hotel the "Louise" district is the best place to go shopping in Brussels.

The Antiques Market of the "Jeu de Balle" square: Takes place every morning, year round, and offers splendid antique pieces, there are many bargains to be discovered!
